We are pleased to offer you a presentation by our member

Prof. Dr. Brigitte Muehlmann

entitled

Young Schumpeter's Ghost

Joseph Schumpeter was an Austrian-American Economist, who is best known for his work on innovation and entrepreneurship as well as for popularizing the term "creative destruction."

The year 2013 marks the 100th anniversary of Joseph Schumpeter's first visit to the U.S. as an exchange professor at Columbia University at age 30.

Harvard University appointed Schumpeter as professor in 1932 where he remained until his retirement in 1948. Prior to his permanent appointment, Schumpeter was a visiting Professor at Harvard University in 1927 and 1928.

Brigitte is an Associate Professor of Suffolk University and a prolific author whose works range from practice management advice for CPAs to articles on future uses of artificial intelligence, She writes a regular column about Boston life for an Austrian magazine for Financial Executives.

Appetizers served preceding our program followed by a delicious buffet, dessert and Austrian wine.
