An Evening of Austrian Music including Mozart and Schubert

Ms. Kosch is a recent graduate from the Masters program at Longy School of Music, and has played both as a soloist and collaborative musician throughout the Boston area. She is also an active participant in new music, performing this summer in the PARMA festival, with the Boston New Music Initiative. Ms. Kosch is currently on the faculty at Boston College, Brookline Music School, and Rivers Conservatory.

Emily Biebe, soprano, is a current freelance musician in Boston and surrounding areas. She is active in the New Music scene, and has sung with the Boston New Music Initiative in 2010 and performed Steve Reich's Tehillim in 2008 for conductor Michael Sakir, who was the A-AA award recipient in 2012. She is a regular to the Boston opera scene.
