

Austro-American Association of Boston

We are pleased to introduce our scholarship recipient

Anna Souchuk

on Saturday, March 28, 2009

at 4:00 pm

at the "Café Vienna"

67 Bridle Path, Sudbury (David and Traude's home)

Anna will give a presentation on the Concept of Gemütlichkeit

focusing on Viennese Coffeehouses as cultural institutions from the past to the modern internet facilities of today. She will also discuss contemporary Viennese authors such as Josef Haslinger, Robert Menasse, and Elfriede Jelinek to demonstrate their side of what may be a cultural controversy regarding Gemütlichkeit.

Anna received her Ph.D. from Yale University, and studied also at the Universität Wien. She is fluent in German with considerable translation experience, has received awards and honors, and is at present Assistant Professor at DePaul University in Chicago.

We are sure, that Anna will provide a memorable evening on a very interesting subject.

This event will include appetizers, buffet dinner, dessert, and our Austrian wine selection.

For directions please call 978-579-2191.

Reservation Slip

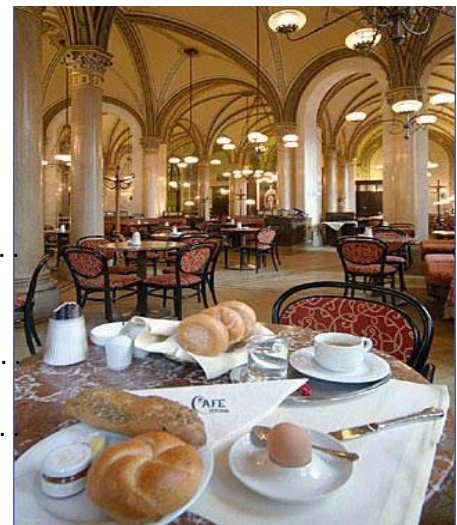

Please return this slip with your check (made out to A-AA) to Traude Acker, 67 Bridle Path, Sudbury, MA 01776

by Friday, the 20th of March.

Name(s) of A-AA member(s) $ 28.00 = $

 Name(s) on non-member(s) $ 38.00 = $

 total $ Contact Tel:

Cafe Central, Vienna