

Austro-American Association of Boston

cordially invites you to a

Spring Concert

introducing our scholarship recipient

Thea Lobo

on Saturday, April 17, 2010
at 5:00 pm

at the "Café Vienna"

67 Bridle Path, Sudbury (home of Traude and David Acker)

Thea is a mezzo-soprano graduate from Boston University, who has appeared under the baton of such conductors as Martin Pearlman, Stephen Stubbs, Harry Christopher, and Helmuth Rilling. She has been featured with several musical organizations including Firebird Ensemble, Boston Baroque, Chorus pro Musica, Boston Early Music Festival and Europaeisches Musikfest Stuttgart.

She will perform for us with her piano accompanist Geraldine Boyer-Cussac.

Her program will include:

Arianna a Naxos, a cantata by Franz Joseph Haydn, and

Lieder eines fahrenden Gesellen (Songs of a Wayfarer), by Gustav Mahler with remarks by Thea about the pieces.

We will have more information about Thea and the composers in our program.

This event will include a buffet dinner, dessert, and our Austrian wine selection.

For directions please call 978-579-2191.

Reservation Slip

Please return this slip with your check (made out to A-AA) to Traude Acker, 67 Bridle Path, Sudbury, MA 01776

by Wednesday, 7th of April.

Name(s) of A-AA members:	$ 20.00 pp .....	$ .....
.....	.....	.....
Name(s) of non-member(s)	$ 30.0 pp .....	$ .....
.....	.....	.....
	total	$ .....

Contact Tel: .....