scholarship recipient

Michael Sakir

conductor and pianist

on

Saturday, March 31, 2012, at 5:00 pm

at the home of Traude and David Acker, 67 Bridle Path, Sudbury, MA 01776

Equally active on the podium and at the keyboard, conductor and pianist Michael Sakir is becoming increasingly recognized as an exciting and versatile musician.

A graduate of the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Michael received a Bachelor of Music degrees in Piano Performance and Music History in 2006. He received a Master of Music degree in Orchestral Conducting from the Boston Conservatory.

He is a member of the national music honor society Pi Kappa Lambda.

Michael will perform an arrangement for piano trio of Arnold Schönberg's well-known expressionistic work, "Verklärte Nacht" by Eduard Steuermann, a student of Arnold Schönberg.

This presentation will include Michael's piano performance along with violinist MaeLynn Arnold and cellist Nick Upton, as well as his introduction and discussion of this work.

This event wil include a Dinner Buffet, Dessert, and our Austrian wine selection.
