at the home of Traude and David Acker,

An Evening of Austrian Music

with Barbara Kilduff accompanied by Brian Moll singing Opera and Operetta arias and traditional Viennese songs.

Coloratura soprano Barbara Kilduff enjoys a sparkling career in opera, oratorio and song recital on both sides of the Atlantic. She sang for many seasons at the Metropolitan Opera, the Wiener Staatsoper, the Bavarian and Hamburg State Opera as well as several other of the world's most prestigious opera stages in roles including Der Rosenkavalier, Die Fledermaus, Der Freischütz, and Die Entführung aus dem Serail.

Brian Moll will accompany Barbara for this evening of music. He is a collaborative pianist and coach, and the Chair of the Vocal and Keyboard Studies at the Longy School of Music. He has given recitals all over Europe (Vienna Mozartsaal, Haydnsaal in Eisenstadt, as well as Tokyo, Boston, and throughout the US, including performances with many renowned singers.

This event will include Appetizers, Dinner Buffet, Dessert, and our Austrian wine selection.
