Flute and Piano Concert Sadie Goodman

Our outstanding 2026 Scholarship Award winner, Sadie Goodman, will present a program for flute and piano centered on composers that represent Vienna's role as a musical center of the world.

Studying at The New England Conservatory, Sadie is one of the most gifted and promising musicians seen in many years.

She has played with several orchestras, including principal flutist with the Boston Philharmonic Youth Orchestra.

Sadie has won numerous concert performance awards in the US and internationally.

The Program with Sadie's introductions

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)
